

I DREAM A WORLD...

Marianna Mott Newirth

I dream a world possible - You and I
Where we stand shoulder to shoulder - Eye to eye
And see ourselves in the Other

Brother - sister - cousin - mother
Reflect me back to myself
And I will see you as you want to be seen

Truth is who I'm being through your seeing
Love is listening to your music, hearing your song
We belong to one another - You and I

When I cannot see - you be my eyes
When I can no longer hear - for the tribulum raking my mind -
You search for my soul on the threshing floor

You are my reflection and I yours
Together we break the mirror dark
Shattered slivers of self
 Crossing the night sky
 Merge with points of light
 Coalescing into dawn

I dream a world possible
Where you and I
Belong to one another
